Sir,

I refer to my letter of October 14 2009 where the Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) was informed and warned about various criminal activities including terrorism. The letter is attached here as Exhibit No. 1. UDI responded to my enquiry in its fax of November 9 2009, attached here as Exhibit No. 2, informing me that the case had been referred to the police. UDI's response was answered upon by me in a letter later that day, attached here as Exhibit No. 3. After this I haven't heard from any Norwegian authorities regarding this matter.

As stated in my enquiries, Kenneth Patrizio Riis is tied both to a far right-wing ideology as well as to an extreme right wing terrorist group/network in Norway and in Italy. Patrizio Riis came in contact with the Norwegian group as early as in the mid to late 1970's. A few years later, he fled from terrorist charges and accusations of illegal weapons possession/storage and gunrunning in Italy. A decade later, in 1991, UDI seems to have been instrumental to Patrizio Riis' successful return to Italy, secretly and suspiciously freed of any charges, which in turn seems to be the main reason why Norwegian authorities are covering up the whole story today.

As far as I understand, the former Meridiana-captain, Patrizio Riis, has yet again fled Italy and is now provided with a safe harbour (including a secret address) in Norway, as was the case during the late 1980's.

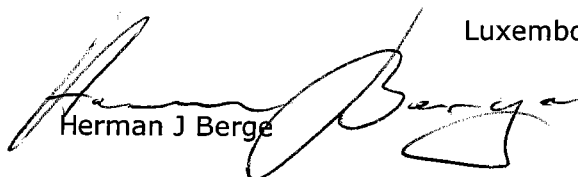

In light of the extreme-right terrorist attacks that occurred in the Oslo city center and at Utøya last summer, of which feasibility to some extent could derive from the Norwegian government's deliberate refusal to investigate our terror charges since 2008,¹ I find it necessary to inform the international community about the Norwegian Government's "special treatment" and protection of right-wing terrorists, which in turn indicates the Government's involvement in this organisation's shady business of arms dealing and money laundering.

Having said this I request yet again that relevant Norwegian authorities now respond to my petitions, gives me access to all necessary case-files in this matter, take appropriate measures and instigate an investigation based upon my enquiries.

Yours sincerely

Luxembourg January 13 2012

Herman J Berge

¹ Please find attached, as Exhibit No. 4, my criminal complaint of October 6 2008, informing Norwegian authorities about Patrizio Riis' extreme right-wing affiliation, his capabilities in regards to terrorism, and the family's records in regards to arms dealings, money laundering etc.

Gjennom de siste tre årene har jeg og min familie opplevd å ha blitt truet en rekke ganger av Kenneth Patrizio Riis (pnr. 220160 28715) og av miljøet rundt ham. Hans straffbare handlinger i denne saken beveger seg fra hensynsløs atferd og krenkelser av privatlivets fred, til utpressing, drapstrusler og korrumpning av dommere og andre statlig ansatte.

Kenneth Patrizio Riis oppfattes som mentalt forstyrret og kan – dersom forholdene ligger til rette – begå alvorlige forbrytelser, også mot liv og helse. Norske påtalemyndigheter har blitt informert om de straffbare forhold, etter hvert som de har funnet sted, gjennom en rekke anmeldelser. Absolutt alle anmeldelser er blitt henlagt som intet straffbart forhold, dette til tross for at de straffbare handlinger er dokumentert ved båndopptak og annen sikker dokumentasjon.

Norske myndigheters påfallende passivitet overfor åpenbare alvorlige straffbare forhold gir grunnlag for å stille flere spørsmål, bl.a.: Hvem er det som beskytter Kenneth Patrizio Riis, og ikke minst; hvorfor?

Som følge av Patrizio Riis' handlinger – og norske myndigheters passivitet – har det vært nødvendig å foreta undersøkelser hvor jeg har funnet følgende:

Einar Riis er et fornavn. Hans fulle navn er Einar Riis Johannessen, hvor Johannessen er hans etternavn. Einar har "giftet" seg kun med sitt fornavn (og er derved ikke gift), og han har fått sine pass utstedt kun på sitt fornavn. Jeg skal i denne omgang ikke gå dypere inn i identifikasjonsproblemet rundt denne familien, og vil for enkelthets skyld benytte betegnelsen "Riis-familien" – til tross for at den rette termen her vil være; Johannessen-familien – om alle medlemmene av denne organisasjonen/klanen.

Kenneth Patrizio Riis var/er medlem av en høyreekstrem politisk gruppe i Italia (etter alt å dømme var han også medlem/sympatisør av en lignende organisasjon i Norge som ble kjent gjennom Hadelandsdrapene i 1981), hvis eneste mål var å utslette kommunismen gjennom enkeltdrap og større terroraksjoner. Mot slutten av 70-tallet/begynnelsen av 80-tallet deltok/medvirket han i terrorhandlinger i Italia. Han skal bl.a. ha deltatt i våpensmugling, ulovlig bruk og lagring av våpen m.v. Med grunnlag i mistanke om medvirkning til terrorhandlinger utstedte Italienske myndigheter arrestordre på Kenneth Patrizio Riis.

Einar Riis Johannessens (angivelig far til Patrizio Riis) spesielle oppgaver i Italia samt hans spesielle forhold til Arma dei Carabinieri var en medvirkende årsak til at han av en høyt rangert Carabinieri-offiser ble informert om den forestående arrestasjonen. Dermed fikk Einar de nødvendige timene på seg til å få sendt sin "sønn" ut av landet. Einar medvirket derved aktivt til å forpurre lovlig etterforskning og rettergang i en terror-sak, en handling som er straffbar.

Bestevennen til Patrizio Riis, Alessandro Sanguè (aka Alex, aka Alexander), rømte Italia samtidig og av samme årsak, og ble høyst sannsynlig varslet og hjulpet av Einar. Venneparet flyktet først til Afrika, deretter til Syd Amerika hvor de etter hvert endte opp i Miami, Florida. Etter nærmere 8 år på flukt fra terror-anklager, fikk Einar bistand fra Norsk UD og UDI. I mars 1988 overleverte UDI et overbevisende dokument til den italienske ambassaden i Oslo, i et forsøk på å bevege italienske myndigheter til å droppe anklagene og å innvilge Patrizio Riis oppholdstillatelse i Italia, hans fødeland. I dette arbeidet ble Italienske myndigheter føret med en rekke falske opplysninger, også fra UDI.

Italienske myndigheter avviste det norske forsøket. Dette synes å ha ført til at Norge tok over beskyttelsen av Patrizio Riis. Han flyttet til Norge i 1988 og fikk derved beskyttelse av Norge mot de anklager som var blitt reist mot ham i Italia. I følge den dokumentasjonen jeg sitter på fikk Patrizio Riis flytte tilbake til Italia i 1992, omtrent 12 år etter at han og hans venn hadde flyktet fra terror-anklagene.

I dag står Kenneth Patrizio Riis igjen under beskyttelse av Norske myndigheter, samt at han får bistand fra de samme myndighetene til å foreta de ovennevnte straffbare handlinger. Idet det er straffbart å skjule og på annen måte medvirke til at mistenkte kriminelle personer og miljøer unnslipper straffeforfølgelse, er norske myndigheter forpliktet til å etterforske og avdekke de straffbare handlinger, og derigjennom finne de involverte og straffeforfølge disse. Dette blir selvsagt problematisk når myndighetene selv er involvert, et forhold hvilket naturlig nok har vært medvirkende til at Norske myndigheter avstår fra å følge loven.

Likevel; jeg har gjennom norsk lov så vel som gjennom internasjonale avtaler et krav på beskyttelse mot handlinger fra den nevnte kriminelle organisasjonen/familien, samt at jeg har et krav på å få vite årsaken til at Norske myndigheter har beskyttet og fremdeles beskytter en høyreekstrem antatt terrorist hvis handlinger har påført italienske familier enorme lidelser og tap av sine kjære. Jeg begjærer i første omgang svar på hvem i UD og UDI som har bistått familien Riis i å kjøpe seg fri fra terror-anklagene i Italia, samt svar på hvorfor UD og UDI har beskyttet og fremdeles beskytter Kenneth Patrizio Riis og hans straffbare handlinger.

I forbindelse med terror-anklagene mot Patrizio Riis fortalte Einar at han hadde betalt store beløp under bordet, samt at han måtte bruke sine aller beste kontakter, for å få innvilget oppholdstillatelse og gjennomført tilbakeføringen av hans "sønn" til Italia. I og med at Einar og hans familie etter eget sigende var fratatt alle midler av Norske myndigheter på tilbakeføringstidspunktet, og derved var blakke, oppstår spørsmålet om hvorvidt det var Norske myndigheter – og ikke Einar – som bestakk italienske myndigheter slik at Kenneth Patrizio Riis unnslopp terror-tiltalen og fikk reise tilbake til Italia for å begynne et nytt liv.

Dokumentet som UDI sendte til den Italienske ambassaden i Oslo for å myke opp italienske myndigheter i 1988, er basert på falske opplysninger, bedrageri og dobbeltspill hvor Einar – etter en rekke møter med UDI – faktisk kan ha holdt pennen for UDI. Av de opplysninger jeg har fått synes det i alle fall som om Einar har kontrollert UDI i dette arbeidet.

I det samme sakskomplekset har det blitt avdekket at Einar Riis Johannessen og hans familie var våpensmuglere med base på bl.a. Ciampino International Airport, Roma. Videre har det vist seg at familien Riis' firma; E. Riis & Co (Italy) S.R.L. ble benyttet som et slags åte-/buffer-/dekk-selskap i en virksomhet som gikk ut på å korrumpere – spesielt – Afrikanske nasjoner og konstruere opp ulovlige avtaler hvor betaling gikk fra disse nasjonene og inn på familien Riis' Sveitsiske og Monegaskiske konti for deretter å straks strømme tilbake til Afrika, man da inn i lommene på Riis-familiens "kontraktparter", med en god profitt til familien Riis. Under etterforskningen har vi funnet dokumentasjon som bekrefter at kjente skandinaviske selskaper også har medvirket i denne kriminelle aktiviteten.

En annen nordmann, Nils Sandum (tidligere direktør i E. Riis & co), deltok i selskapets spesielle virksomhet i perioden 1979 - 1985. Vi har også avdekket utstrakt hvitvasking og annen valutakriminalitet i bl.a. New York, Hamburg, Oslo og Bern hvor Einar Riis Johannessens datter, Benedicte Riis-Duryea har medvirket. Norske skattemyndigheter er kjent med aktiviteten og dens skattemessige konsekvenser, men motarbeider alle forsøk på å få avdekket de kriminelle forholdene.

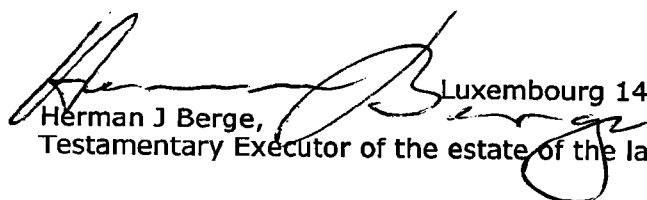

Utover 1990-tallet synes virksomheten – som etter hvert hadde endret karakter og som også hadde spredt seg til Nigeria – å ha blitt særdeles risikofull. Einar turte ikke selv å reise til Nigeria for å fullføre en avtale, hvoretter han i stedet sendte en flyger som bodde under ham i Michelets vei 23 A på Lysaker. Flygeren kom ikke tilbake i live. Han døde i følge Einar der nede og ble antakelig drept. Så langt jeg har kjennskap til dette konkrete tilfellet, dreide avtalen seg om ca 40 millioner US dollar.

Etterforskningen dokumenterer en lang rekke straffbare forhold og styrker derved den oppfatning at Riis-familien er en kriminelt belastet organisasjon/klan som Norge gjennom en rekke år og av ukjent årsak, synes å ha beskyttet.

Idet jeg kontinuerlig og på straffbart vis blir angrepet av denne organisasjonen/klanen hvis angrep norske myndigheter medvirker i, har jeg en selvsagt rett til beskyttelse. Norske myndigheter ønsker likevel ikke å beskytte meg og min familie, noe som gir meg grunnlag for å overta den kompetanse hvis norske myndigheter disponerer over og som de er forpliktet til å ta i bruk, men som de likevel har avstått fra å anvende. Med dette som grunnlag begjærer jeg innsyn i den komplette Riis-filen (-ene) i UDI.

Dersom UDI skulle ønske ytterligere informasjon i forbindelse med begjæringen, står jeg – etter nærmere avtale – gjerne til tjeneste.

Endelig ber jeg om at saken blir gitt prioritert.

Jeg viser til UDIs faks av 9. november 2009, og har følgende kommentarer:

Uten andre holdepunkter enn den nevnte faksen må jeg anta at UDIs oversendelse av saken til politiet, er å anse som et avslag på innsyn. Jeg viser til det som er nevnt om påtalemyndighetens handlinger, i min begjæring av 14. oktober 2009, og nevner i den forbindelse at en oversendelse av saken til politiet er ensbetydende med at det skal legges lokk over saken for på den måten å hindre enhver etterforskning. Motivet for denne handlingen synes å være en fortsatt beskyttelse av "Riis-organisasjonen" og de straffbare handlinger som dette miljøet har utøvet og fortsatt synes å utøve.

UDI har ikke redegjort for avslaget slik fvl §21 gir anvisninger om.

Jeg begjærer UDIs medvirkning til at klagen blir oversendt til korrekt klageorgan uten videre forsinkelser.

Criminal complaint

Consul Einar Riis, Monaco, was murdered in Sweden on May 30 2006, after suffering from at least – according to medical documents – two earlier murder attempts (toxic poisoning). This was also expressed by one of his sons in a phone conversation with me within 24 hours after the Consul was dead: "They have killed him", he stated.

On August 28 2001 the late Consul Riis and his wife made a testament, stating that I was to act as the testamentary executor of their will.

The late Consul Riis feared that someone would try to kill him either by a staged car accident, or by poison. This was the sole reason why he on June 28 2000 made an agreement with his wife and had it notarised. By this official Norwegian act he thought that the main evidence, his body, would be protected from evaporating into the thin air.

Some hours before Consul Riis got ill he was approached by two unknown persons, probably agents. The Consul died a couple of days later.

The late Consul Riis' body was smuggled into Norway and only some 70 hours after his death he was cremated contrary to agreement with his "wife", short of mandatory police approvals, autopsy, and investigation on the murder.

The late Consul Riis established his business in Rome, Italy, in 1947. Throughout the time I worked together with the late Consul Riis, I knew very little about his previous life and business dealings in Italy, besides that he/his companies during the first decades after the war practically had; monopoly on handling airliners and airfreight at the most important (military) airports in Italy; monopoly on air charters for the Vatican, as well as monopoly on handling requests for air slots from passing international airliner traffic.

My job was concentrated for the most part on his legal actions against the Norwegian Government. During the period I worked together with the late Consul Riis, we solved one of the court cases between the Riis-family and Norway. The settlement left the Ministry of Justice to pay some NOK 55 million (€7 million), the largest claim settlement ever between the Norwegian government and a citizen. The Minister of Justice, Mr. Odd Einar Dorom, made it clear in the settlement that the ministry didn't admit to any responsibility what so ever by this payment, an odd statement which made this considerable payment even more odd. You won't find a Government in this world making payments of such quantity without having a reason to do so, that is; having a Governmental decision established on facts and sound professional evaluation of the said case in question.

During WWII the late Consul Riis was a saboteur and agent under the supervision of the Special Operations Executive (SOE). He was also a Spitfire pilot, later on a Norwegian consul in Rome as well as a successful business man. Just a few years after the war – after tracing and unearthing British bodies (and other objects) on the west coast of Norway – Mr. Riis moved to (was placed in) Naples, and thereafter in Rome where he started his blooming "aviation business".

Following Consul Riis' death, I discovered that he and his companies owned numerous medium sized aircrafts which were leased to other airline companies, such as the Bologna based Aerolinee Itavia, a company Mr. Riis was both the founder of as well as a major shareholder in, although he was hiding the major part of his ownership behind a nominee shareholder, Mr. Aldo Davanzali.

The late Consul Riis was thus in fact the owner of the DC9 that was downed outside the shores of Ustica on June 27 1980, the Aerolinee Itavia Flight 870, where all 81 people on board were killed. The first message that was revealed the day after the downing of the DC9 stated that a right-wing political organisation proclaimed to be responsible for what then had to be considered as a terror attack.

Mr. Patrizio Riis (aka Kenneth Riis, aka Kenneth Patrizio Riis), the late Consul Riis' son, was according to his father a member of such an organisation in Rome, Italy, as well as being a warm and enthusiastic admirer of a similar right-wing organisation in Norway who was responsible for the Hadeland-Execution (February 21 1981) where two members of the group were gunned down from behind on a deserted Norwegian country road while "the police" were controlling the situation from the deep of the nearby woods.

The investigation of the Ustica disaster (the attack on Itavia Flight 870) was closed as a consequence of a court decision last year, but only to be reopened on June 23 2008, some days after we had had a meeting in Rome concerning the downing of this aircraft.

On page 23 in his book; "It tends to go well", SOE-agent¹ Mr. Max Manus tells with his own words about parts of the period of his life prior to the outbreak of WWII:

"...I met two handsome Norwegian sailors who had signed off in Buenos Aires. Their pockets were full of money, which was quite natural. When I came to myself, in some mysterious way I had become an ordinary seaman on a 15000 ton tanker on its way around Cape Horn destined for Peru. There was no lack of thrills – rough weather through the Magellan strait, exciting smuggling in Peru, fights, stabbing and everything else that comes with the profession.²

I strolled around between Venezuela and Colombia and had some sidetrips down to Aruba and Curacao. Smuggling weapons and silk was pretty profitable over there. And ridiculously easy. The customs officers were like everywhere else pretty corrupted. Everybody in Venezuela was totally wild about weapons. Our own Mil.org.³ was simply child's play in comparison. We just had to bribe the customs officer with some toy gun that looked good, and he would close his eyes. Of course it happened now and then that some of them all of a sudden would play honest, and therefore could get pretty difficult. But it turned out to go well."

By this Mr. Manus describes himself as a thoroughbred smuggler and arms dealer, and was thus a cold-blooded hard core criminal long before he returned to Norway and became an agent for the SOE.

Some way or other Mr. Manus met up with the late Consul Riis during the early stages of the war and Consul Riis was shortly after recruited by Mr. Manus and the SOE as one of their new agents in Norway. The couple is by the way pictured in action on the cover of Mr. Manus' book mentioned above.

Earlier this year I was contacted by a former director of E. Riis & C (established in 1954) and E. Riis E Company SRL, Italy (established in 1976). Shortly after, in a meeting with him in Rome, we were told that the late Consul Einar Riis and his companies were supplying arms from their main base – Ciampino airport, Rome – to armies in African countries (Libya and Ethiopia), among others. During the meeting we were told about a few incidents, one where the Ciampino airport was closed after an incident caused by some of the ground crew that were loading a cargo aircraft of Riis'. The ground crew had lost the grip on a container which fell and was destroyed on impact. To the ground crew's disbelief guns poured out of it.

The late Consul Riis was an arms dealer/provider and by logic a hard core criminal, responsible of and liable for genocides and crimes against humanity. He had become the same thoroughbred arms dealer as his principal, Mr. Manus, most likely in co-operation with or under the command of the successor of the SOE.

Having said this I remind the Prosecutor about what former chief prosecutor of an UN-backed tribunal, Professor David Crane, has stated in regards with arms dealers and the consequence of their business:

"They didn't just die, they died in horrible in agony," says Professor Crane. "Imagine standing in a mass grave of dead children. I could describe to you the horror but you wouldn't take it in, you couldn't ... People like Kouwenhoven⁴ did this."

"These were thugs," says Professor Crane of Mr Taylor and his Dutch business partner.⁵ "Small-time crooks and bit-players who took advantage of the absence of law. They were nobodies. But they became mobsters who will go down in history as horrors. They thrive on the corruption and greed in the dark corners of the world."

² What Mr. Manus seems to describe is a standard Norwegian sailor on a standard Norwegian merchant vessel: Smuggling was according to Mr. Manus part of the daily life onboard, both for the ship owner as well as the crew, and it was profitable.

⁵ Mr. Guus Kouwenhoven.

Professor Crane, the author of the indictment against Mr Taylor, who is now in jail in Sierra Leone, awaiting probable trial at The Hague, adds: "(Mr Kouwenhoven) represents the kind of financier that has ruined large parts of West Africa for personal gain. He was a close intimate of Charles Taylor. We exposed the rule of blood diamonds, rainforest timber and guns. What we found was horrendous."

This is an adequate description of the horror Consul Riis, his family and conspirators, Mr. Manus, Mr. Kouwenhoven and any other arms dealers are responsible for. They are quite simply merchants of death.

It seems that the late Consul Riis and his family were running as well as concealing this lucrative business – trafficking of illegal arms – in the shadow of Riis' airline-/aircraft-related companies in Italy. The profit from their arms dealings/arms trafficking is supposed to have been diverted and laundered through notaries, companies and banks in a few Tax Haven Countries.

The late Consul Riis' "wife", Mrs. Amelia Riis⁶ (aka Mrs. Dagny Olsen, aka Mrs. Dagny Amelia Riis, aka Mrs. Amelia Olsen, aka Mrs. Dagny Amelia Olsen Riis) and her son, Mr. Patrizio Riis (aka Mr. Kenneth Riis, aka Mr. Kenneth Patrizio Riis), were part of the late Consul Riis' business. Mr. Patrizio Riis, as of today a supposed airline captain in the Verona based Meridiana S.P.A., was the liquidator of the aircraft broker/arms dealer company; E. Riis E Company SRL. See Appendix I.

Mr. Patrizio Riis' father, the Consul, got a serious and (for his family) critical message from a high rank Carabinieri-officer in the 1980', warning⁷ the consul about an immediate razzia at his home and office in Rome as well as an arrest warrant on his son.

The reason for this razzia and arrest warrant on his son was, according to the late Consul Riis, Mr. Patrizio Riis' involvement with arms/storage of arms/arms dealing and his connection with a political far right-wing organisation that had been accused of terrorist attacks and murders in northern Italy. The late Mr. Riis revealed to me, shortly after the first murder attempt on him, that he was in doubt whether his son had killed or had been involved in killing people – as he put it – through his involvement in this right-wing organisation.⁸ Mr. Patrizio Riis fled Italy within minutes before the razzia and his upcoming arrest, and hence he escaped from both interrogations on terrorism as well as a presumed criminal trial.

For several years Mr. Patrizio Riis was a fugitive living in havens like Norway (April 1988 to June 1991), South Africa and South America, waiting for his father to succeed in manipulating the Italian prosecutors and the judicial system.

In 1991 the late Consul Riis, together with highly influential lawyers and high rank officers managed to manipulate the Italian system and thus opened the door for his son to return to Italy. As soon as Mr. Patrizio Riis arrived Italy, he was placed to liquidate the aircraft broker/arms dealer company; E. Riis E Company SRL.

According to one of E. Riis E Company's directors this company closed their business no later than 1984. According to Italian company registers the company was voluntarily liquidated in 1992/93, during the same period in which Consul Riis disinherited his son Mr. Patrizio Riis, and allegedly started looking for his other son.

As far as Consul Riis told me, he had to take care of the court-cases in Norway, and was thus unable to take care of the company's business in Italy or the closing of it for that matter. According to Consul Riis Mrs. Amelia Riis was by this reason sent to Rome to close the company. During this period (one year) she allegedly managed to do business (alone and together with her son) as well.

If we are talking about buying/selling aircrafts one should have doubts about this explanation, since none of these two were by far competent in this part of the business. Making or closing other deals in the shadowy part of the family-business would though be possible taken into consideration the fact that a network connecting the suppliers and customers most likely already was established by Consul Riis. But what happened to the companies, the conspirators, the "business"?; has the family ceased their illegal business and if so – at what time; where is the profit from this business concealed, and so forth? These are open questions which obviously need to be taken care of.

The late Consul Riis' son has not answered for the war crimes, crimes against humanity or the terrorist activities that he was wanted for in Italy. This goes for the late Consul Riis, his "wife" and their daughter; Mrs. Benedicte Riis-Duryea (aka Benedicte Riis, aka, Benedicte Duryea) as well.

Mr. Patrizio Riis was and still is holding a Norwegian passport. Norwegian authorities were thus instantly informed – in case Mr. Patrizio Riis as a "Norwegian" should seek safe haven in Norway to avoid prosecution on terror-activities – about the accusations and that he was wanted for these crimes in Italy. Nevertheless the Norwegian Government (H.M.K. OKKUPASJONSBERESKAP; the 1995-successor to the illegal but though well established Norwegian branch of STAY BEHIND) provided this fugitive with safe haven for at least three years, see Appendix II. As the Prosecutor will see Mr. Patrizio Riis appears as not married in this official document, although he made me (and his father) believe that he got married sometime during the 1990'.

Damaging claims as a consequence of deception

In 1997 I was engaged by Consul Einar Riis and his family to help obtaining just satisfaction in their claims against the Norwegian Government and others that could be liable to the family. The most crucial information concerning this family's secrets, especially about their arms dealer/arms trafficking business, was kept out of my knowledge, and has been gathered in the aftermath of the murder of Consul Einar Riis.

I have thus been deceived by this family during almost ten years of co-operation. If the family had informed me about their past, their crimes, about their real business, needles to say I would have rejected their proposal of co-operation.

As a direct cause of the above mentioned cover-up and the Riis-family's as well as the H.M.K. OKKUPASJONSBEREDSKAP's joint actions against me following the murder of Consul Riis, my career has been shattered for the foreseeable future.

I herby claim Mrs. Amelia Riis/Dagny Olsen and her two children Mrs. Benedicte Riis-Duryea and Mr. Patrizio Riis as well as the estate of the late Consul Riis (all jointly and severally liable) for damages in the amount of €50 million (€ 50.000.000,-). Should we, the estate of the late Consul Einar Riis, find assets belonging to the estate, I reserve the right to revise and adjust my damaging claims.

Murder threats

On December 11 2007 in Oslo City Court, Norway, Mr. Patrizio Riis told a Norwegian citizen, Mr. Stan Stancheff, that he would chase me and my family down if necessary for at least three generations, Re; the Italian vendetta. Considering Mr. Patrizio Riis' past as a conspirator to arms dealing, terrorism and murdering, I take this threat as an apparent murder threat on both me as well as my family. In this regard I remind the Prosecutor about other murder threats which originates from this family, namely several threats that were phoned to Ms. Anne Lise Sellæg, the late Consul Riis' mistress during a period in the 1990'. These threats were of such a grave nature that Ms. Sellæg felt forced to move out of Oslo, to Mosjøen, a city in the Northern Norway, approximately 900 km from Oslo. See note # 8 above.

This document is both a claim letter as well as a formal criminal complaint against the named persons. I demand immediate actions; investigation on war crimes, crimes against humanity and terrorism as well as other crimes mentioned; detention of the suspected (Mrs. Amelia Riis aka... residing at Michelets vei 23 A, 1366 Lysaker, Norway, Mr. Patrizio Riis aka... residing at Viale Andrea Pialladio 10, 37138 Verona, Italy,⁹ and Mrs. Benedicte Riis-Duryea aka... residing at 11 Witting Court, Moraga 94556 California, USA; investigation of all the family's business (and their conspiring partners in the banking and airline business as well as in shipping or others) in Italy, Monaco, Switzerland, Norway, Luxembourg, Sweden, USA, Bermuda, Colombia and other relevant countries – as well as adequate police protection for me and my family.

In closing: The late Consul Riis told me a few times how he was greeted when he met with officials in these African and Middle East countries. He even showed me photos where the leaders were driving Mr. Riis around in a cortège of black limousines, like they normally would do when welcoming leaders of other nations.

In a state of hopelessness living in his misery, "totally broke", striped of respect, honour and friends, at the same time looking back at the glory days when he was something compared to how he – during the period where he was supposed to enjoy the leisure time of his retirement – thereafter was raped (as he put it) year after year by Norwegian judges, I guess he felt that he had to remind himself now and then that he had seen better times, that it was worthwhile fighting. In such a state he showed me the pictures.

These photos are evidence of possible great importance regarding his contacts/network in the arms dealing business, and should be confiscated before the anticipated destruction that will follow the moment the family will be notified about these accusations. Most likely you will find similar material in the homes of all the family members; that is in San Francisco, Verona, Sardinia, Oslo, as well as in Consul Riis' estates in Sweden and Monaco.

Luxembourg October 6 2008
Herman J Berge,
Testamentary Executor of the estate of the late consul Einar Riis

⁹ It seems that Mr. Patrizio Riis yet again has fled Italy just days before the reopening of the Ustica-affair. At present he lives on a secret address in Norway, with this zip code (0516 Oslo) as the only guide to his present whereabouts.
