When you planned, called for and subsequently held the meeting with us on June 10 2010, were you aware of the fact that the bank in question had already obtained a secret decision against us in the Court of First Instance?

When you re-opened the case against Danske Bank for the third time on July 16 2010, were you aware of the fact that this bank had already obtained a secret decision against us in the Court of First Instance?

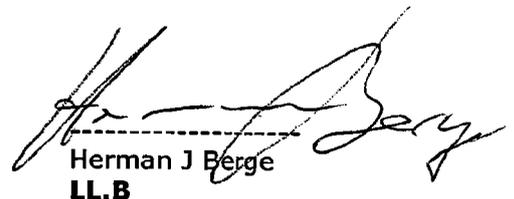

When you in your letter of August 13 2010 asked us for further comments and information on the alleged crimes which Danske Bank has carried out, were you aware of the fact that the said bank had already obtained a secret decision against us in the Court of First Instance?

Please answer upon these questions immediately and in the form of an affidavit.
